Milton Keynes design agency TravisBead has been commissioned to brand one of MK's newest ventures, the CentreStage Theatre School MK.

Opening this coming September CentreStage will be a theatrical centre of excellence offering young people between the ages of 4-18 the opportunity to explore and develop their potential through classes and workshops in singing, dancing and acting.

TravisBead, an ideas-led design agency based in central Milton Keynes focuses on producing emotive work that communicates effective business building messages in both a professional and contemporary way.

Peter Addis, Director, who heads up the team of highly respected teaching professionals at CentreStage says,

"We are tremendously excited to be working with TravisBead and are impressed by the clean contemporary style of their work."

Rozalia Sherwood, Creative Manager at TravisBead says,

"We are delighted to be working with the CentreStage Theatre School. As well as being a privilege to collaborate on such a creative project, it is also an opportunity to contribute in some small way to the cultural life of Milton Keynes."
